Constant Procession the book and podcast series shine a light on an overlooked phenomena witnessed from Australia to Brazil, from Canada to Japan...

This phenomenon is a constant procession of men and women who ask the Mother of God to intercede for their prayers to God. They believe the mother of Jesus Christ can intercede to her son for their requests.

Pray requests by individuals are made in private and public when seeking the Virgin Mary's assistance in appeals to God.

Many believe that occasionally, she appears offering spiritual guidance and something miraculous for their lives or the entire world.

They look to the series of apparitions that have been documented and recognized by the Roman Catholic Church in support for these hopes.

The book and series use the timeline of human history since the Madonna passed on to retrace these documented appearances of the Virgin Mary to witnesses and bystanders over time. Also included are the tangible results following an apparition as well as the ramifications when her requests have gone unanswered.
